

Thursday, Mar. 24
1938

Dear May, Fred, Joan, and Jr.

First I'll introduce myself to Junior. "Hello Junior, This is your Uncle Frank, it's about time, I thought you'd never get here.

Well may I hope you're feeling O.K., and it won't be long now before you'll be home with two babies, three counting Freddie + then you'll have the fun. When you go home with Junior, I'll bet Joanie will be wondering "who" + "what" her mama has with her.

(2)

How are you holding up Freddie, boy you sure are the family man now, a son + daughter. I'll bet your the proud papa.

Well not much more to say except. "Take it easy May" and get a good rest. Give Joanie +

(3.)

Junior a kiss for me +

Lots of love,
Frankie

P.S. I'm just dying to see you all.

Regards to everyone.

I'll write again soon